Watch for Walks!

Phil Davidson, EBTC Webmaster

The summer ride season is fading into reverie. Winter hasn't really arrived with snow for winter riding (and skiing!). Should we cocoon until winter really arrives (or spring!)? No, it's a great time of year to stretch your legs with some walks. Watch for pop-up walks – and maybe even a ride or two - while we wait for snow.

Our first pop-up walk of the season went out today. It was scheduled for optional 5 to 11 km from Ft. Saskatchewan and optionally some dirt trail or all asphalt. Everyone did at least 9.5 km with a mix of paved and dirt. We're looking forward to more soon.
